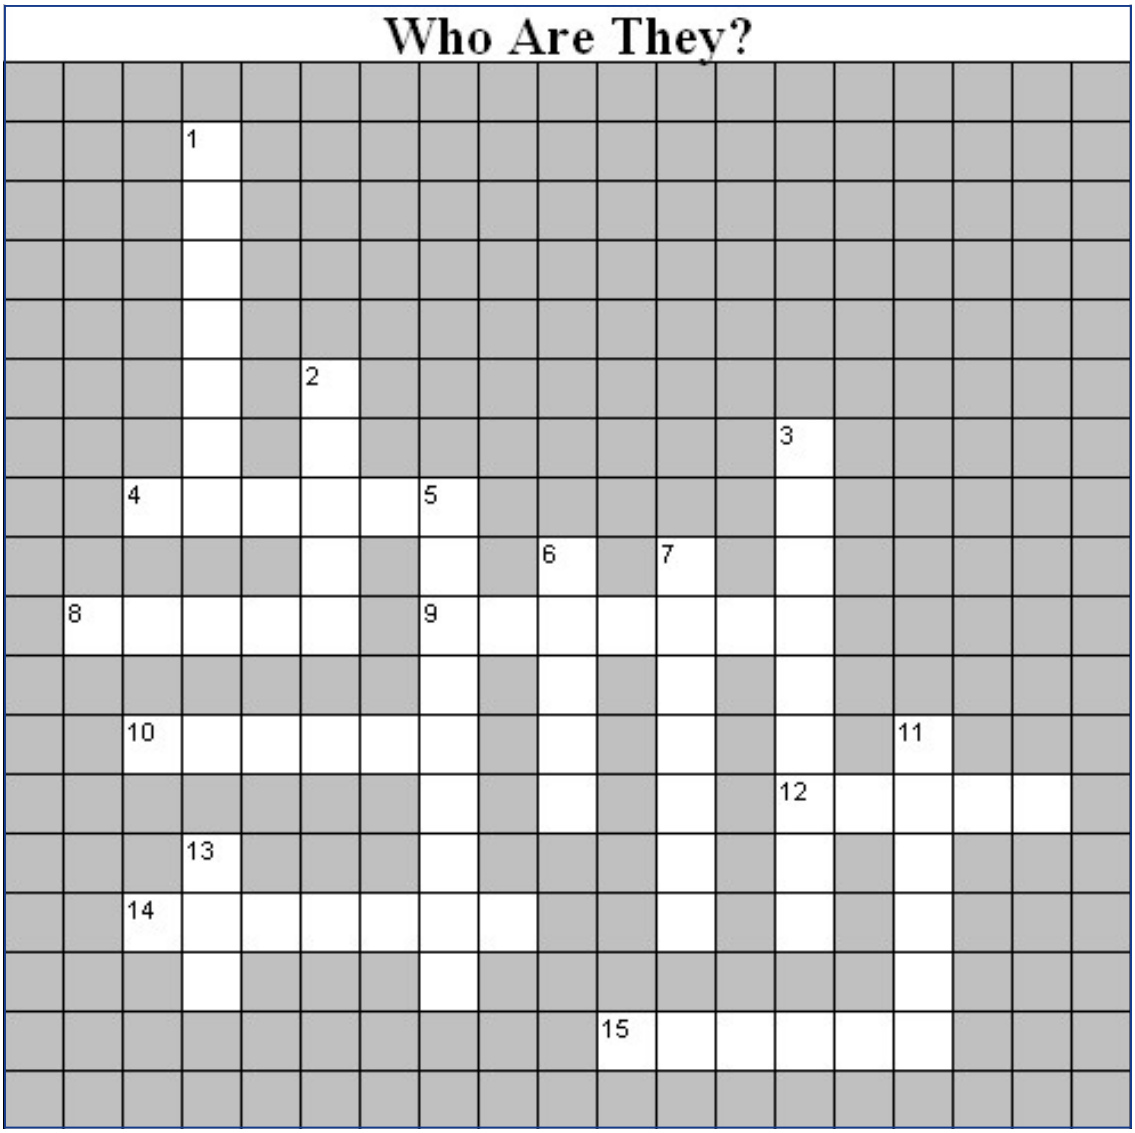
Who Are They?



CLUES:

Down

1. This SAIN project employee holds masters degrees in economics and information science and information technology.
2. This new Kirtland library manager once worked at the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising.
3. Once upon a time, this employee worked at the International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna, Austria.
5. This Eglin librarian holds a bachelors degree in mathematics.
6. This UK-based employee once directed the Civil Engineer Training School in Ramstein, Germany.
7. At Langley, this employee manages learning resource centers in the United Arab Emirates, Qatar, Kyrgyzstan, Kuwait, and three locations in Iraq.
11. In the mid 90s, this Reston-based employee managed projects for the Save the Tigers Fund/Sumatran Tiger Program.
13. At Goddard, this server administrator was lauded for a recent server migration.

Across

4. This employee at our Edwards project volunteers with the Young American Bowling Alliance.
8. This military records clerk at Eglin was once a jet engine mechanic.
9. This is the mother of the last baby born at Corporate Office (so far)!
10. You can talk to this guy about nanotechnology.
12. At Cannon, this employee rounded up magicians and bug specialists for their Summer Reading program .
14. This corporate employee used to be a real drama queen...at the Oak Ridge Playhouse.
15. This new employee worked on a practicum for the IIa intranet, which led to a job with IIa Goddard.